

2019 APPEA Taxation and Commercial Conference

24–25 OCTOBER 2019 | QT, LONDON CIRCUIT, CANBERRA | A MEMBERS-ONLY EVENT

Call for Papers

The Australian Petroleum Production & Exploration Association (APPEA) is pleased to announce that the 2019 APPEA Taxation and Commercial Conference will next be held at the QT Hotel, Canberra on 23-25 October 2019.

Expressions of interest are being sought for papers and presentations relating to taxation, legal, commercial, accounting and economic topics relevant to Australia's oil and gas industry.

Topics of interest include the following:

- Recent domestic taxation developments
- International tax reforms impacting on the industry
- PRRT policy and technical issues, including transitioning to the new legislative framework
- Tax administration and compliance
- Project dealings and realignments – tax impediments and reform options
- Value creation in the sale of petroleum in global markets - taxation implications
- The role of tax in managing project risks
- Project financing trends
- Transparency initiatives, including tax reporting
- Australia's fiscal competitiveness – attracting new petroleum investments
- Developments in state based taxes, including petroleum royalties and licence fees
- Trends in mergers and acquisitions
- Joint venture and project management

Expressions of interest close on Friday, 15 February 2019

Submissions or Inquiries

Please submit your expression of interest by emailing a 250 word abstract to Noel Mullen, APPEA Deputy Chief Executive, via email nmullen@appea.com.au

Sponsorship

Limited sponsorship opportunities will be available for this conference. To register your interest, please contact Georgia Toirkens, APPEA Event Coordinator, via email gtoirkens@appea.com.au

For further information on the event please visit the APPEA Taxation and Commercial Conference website